Summarized translation of a communist handbill entitled "Manifesto in commemoration of Anniversary of Tsinan Incident - May 3," which was obtained by the Municipal Police in Yulin Road District on May 3, 1934.

On May 3, 1928, the Japanese imperialists massacred the Chinese masses at Tsinan. On that date the anti-Northern forces captured Tsinan. This aroused the ire of the Japanese imperialists who launched an attack on that city. The treacherous Chiang Kai-shek, instead of offering resistance, ordered the Chinese troops to retreat thereby a wholesale massacre was carried out on the Chinese people.

The aggression of the Japanese and other imperialists in China is being intensified daily, and her political situation is at stake. Apart from adopting a treacherous policy, the slavish Kuomintang are intensifying their oppressive campaign on the labouring masses. At the sametime, the revolutionary masses are being tortured and massacred with the object of suppressing the "revolutionary tide".

The entire body of revolutionary masses should therefore unite and commemorate May 3 by strikes and riots. Our slogans to be used on the occasion are:-

1) Declare a general strike to commemorate the May 3 Anniversary.
2) Overthrow the treacherous Kuomintang which is selling China.
3) Overthrow the Japanese and other foreign imperialists.
4) Support the anti-Imperialist and anti-Japanese Red Army.
5) Support Soviet China!

The Eastern District Committee of the Chinese Communist Party. Dated May 3, 1934.

REPORT

Date May 2nd, 1934.

Subject (in full) Rumoured Movements re May the 3rd Anniversary.

Made by D.S.I. Brownrigg Forwarded by

Sir,

With reference to the Anniversary of the Tsinan Incident on 3.5.34, certain rumours have been reported that possibly "Red Elements" might congregate at the corner of Jessfield and Robison Roads between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. on said date, and from there proceed either to the Foo Foong Flour Mill, No.25 Mokanshan Road, or to the No. 9 Sung Sing Cotton Mill, also on Mokanshan Road. This is precisely the same information that was received with reference to Labour Day Movements on May the 1st.

All necessary precautions will be taken.*

A copy of this report has been forwarded to the Special Branch for their information.

If the circumstances should not warrant it is not for us of freedom
